On November 13, the Holiday season kicks into high gear—NMTC is turning last Christmas's smash hit show into a new holiday tradition for Chicago. Cap off a visit to the Macy's Windows and Christkindlmarket with a trip to the Spiders From Mars Space Station with 'The David Bowie Hepzikat Funky Velvet Flarney Solstice Spectacular, Live...From Space!' (Or David Bowie's Christmas Special 1977 Network Edit) Starring the character of David Bowie, this one of kind variety show spectacular snatched from the archives of 1977 brings the kind of star power that only 'Ziggy Stardust' can command. This year, character appearances by Mick Jagger, Annie Lennox, Iggy Pop, Marianne Faithfull, Paul Lynde, Charo, and more, plus a special appearance by the Ghost of Freddy Mercury, will take audience members on an exciting journey of song and dance reminding us all of the joys of brotherhood and giving. But when the mysterious Bizarro Bowie appears to reveal his scattered past, it's a race against time to save the holidays from the ultimate universal implosion. Although, with this many celebrities on board, what could possibly go wrong? Find out at 'The David Bowie Hepzikat Funky Velvet Flarney Solstice Spectacular, Live...From Space!'.
