CHICAGO – One of the weirdest pre-upfronts weeks in a long time continues as sources are reporting that NBC will renew “Parenthood,” as HollywoodChicago.com predicted, but will not include the already-buzzed “Wonder Woman” when their schedule is announced on Monday.

We predicted [12] the “Parenthood” renewal coming for some time. It may not have stellar numbers but it has ones that are good enough for NBC and it has a loyal following.

The “Wonder Woman” news, if true, is shocking. Keep in mind that this is the network that aired “Bionic Woman” and “Knight Rider.” The “Wonder Woman” pilot wasn’t as good as those two? It wasn’t good enough to replace the dismal numbers of “Chuck”? Don’t you really want to see it even more now?

We’ll keep you informed on all the rumors, news, and up-to-the-minute developments over the next week as the picture gets clearer and possibly even weirder.
