CHICAGO – The New York Times [11] is reporting (but nowhere else yet so we’ll call it a “rumor”) that CBS will announce that three programs from the 2010-11 season will get a shot at breaking the sophomore slump — “Blue Bloods,” “Hawaii Five-0,” and “Mike & Molly”.

We hate to say “I told you so,” but we were one of the few outlets to predict a return [12] for “Blue Bloods” and “Hawaii Five-0” and “Mike & Molly” always felt like locks.

If the news is true, this leaves fans of “Criminal Minds: Suspect Behavior” and “CSI: NY” waiting on the bubble for CBS.

CBS makes its full schedule official on Wednesday (and we’ll know if any of these sophomore programs are moving...at least one probably will) but you can expect a few more announcements to trickle out before then. Stay tuned to HollywoodChicago.com for all your TV news.
