CHICAGO – This one was predictable. NBC continues to leak out their renewals and cancellations one piece at a time. Despite having decent overall ratings, the youth demo that advertisers want never came to “Harry’s Law” and so the Kathy Bates dramedy has been predictably canceled. It only leaves one question mark on the NBC’s slate — “Whitney” — which some outlets are reporting has already been renewed.

Come back next week for all five of the major network Fall schedules.
