CHICAGO – ABC decided to throw TV journalists a curveball late on Friday when they announced the renewal of two on-the-bubble shows that most were predicting would get the axe — drama “Body of Proof” and comedy “Don’t Trust the B—— in Apt. 23.” They also announced the expected renewals of “Last Man Standing” and “Private Practice” and confirmed that “Missing” and “The River” would not return.

Come back next week for all five of the major network Fall schedules to see when all of this wonderful programming will air. With SO many ABC renewals, it leads one to wonder where their new programming will go.
