Here is the synopsis for “High School”:

The day after soon-to-be valedictorian Henry Burke (Matt Bush) takes a hit of the chronic for the first time, his school principal (Michael Chiklis) institutes a zero-tolerance drug policy and administers a mandatory drug test for all students.

Henry has two options: fail and lose his college scholarship or team up with his stoner friend Breaux (Sean Marquette) to beat the system. They steal high-powered ganja from law student-turned-drug-dealer Psycho Ed (Adrien Brody) and spike the school’s bake-sale brownies to get the whole school stoned out of their minds.

But with the student body getting higher and higher with every brownie and a pissed-off Psycho Ed on their tails for stealing his stash, they must find a way to keep their half-baked plan from going up in smoke.
