The synopsis for “Texas Chainsaw 3D” is below.

Lionsgate’s “Texas Chainsaw 3D” continues the legendary story of the homicidal Sawyer family by picking up where Tobe Hooper’s 1974 horror classic left off in Newt, Texas where people went missing without a trace for decades. The townspeople long suspected the Sawyer family (owners of a local barbeque pit) were responsible.

Their suspicions were finally confirmed one hot summer day when a young woman escaped the Sawyer house following the brutal murders of her four friends. Word around the small town quickly spread and a vigilante mob of enraged locals surrounded the Sawyer stronghold. They burned it to the ground and killed every last member of the family – or so they thought.

Decades later and far from the original massacre, a young woman named Heather learns that she has inherited a Texas estate from an unknown grandmother. After embarking on a road trip with friends to uncover her roots, she finds she’s the sole owner of a lavish, isolated Victorian mansion. But her newfound wealth comes at a price as she stumbles upon a horror that awaits her in the mansion’s dank cellars...
