Here is the synopsis for "Low Winter Sun":

In Detroit, "Low Winter Sun" is a contemporary story of murder, deception, revenge and corruption in a world where the line between cops and criminals is blurred. This gritty, edgy and provocative crime drama begins with an act of retribution: the murder of a dirty cop by two fellow Detroit detectives Frank Agnew (Mark Strong) and Joe Geddes.

Seemingly the perfect crime, in reality the murder activates forces that will forever alter Agnew's life and pull him into the heart of the Detroit underworld. The series is based on the 2006 award-winning British two-part mini-series of the same name written by Simon Donald and produced by Tiger Aspect Productions (an Endemol company).

In addition to Chris Mundy, Jeremy Gold (head of creative affairs for Endemol Studios) oversees the project with Greg Brenman (head of drama for Tiger Aspect Productions).
