Brenton and Odeya

have some fun at 'The Giver' meet-and-greet.

CHICAGO – Two of the hottest young stars came to Chicago recently to promote their latest film, "The Giver." Odeya Rush and Brenton Thwaites were at Chicago's historic Navy Pier to greet fans and sign autographs. HollywoodChicago.com was there and got Exclusives Portraits of the dynamic co-stars.

The Australian born Brenton Thwaites was on a couple of popular TV shows there, but desired to expand into international cinema, and landed supporting roles in this year's "Oculus" and "Maleficent." Odeya Rush was born in Israel, but moved to the U.S. at nine years old. Her first big film was "The Odd Life of Timothy Green" (2012), and she followed that up with the independent film "We Are What We Are" (2013). She has a high profile role in the upcoming film adaptation of the 'Goosebumps' book series.
