Here is the synopsis for “Max”:

A precision-trained military dog, Max serves on the front-lines in Afghanistan alongside his handler, U.S. Marine Kyle Wincott. But when things go terribly wrong on maneuvers, Kyle is mortally wounded. Traumatized by the loss of his best friend, Max is unable to remain in service. Sent stateside, the only human he seems willing to connect with is Kyle’s teenage brother, Justin. Max is saved when he is adopted by Kyle’s family.

But Justin has issues of his own including living up to his father’s expectations. He isn’t interested in taking responsibility for his brother’s troubled dog. However, Max may be Justin’s only chance to discover what really happened to his brother that day on the front. With the help of Carmen – a tough-talking young teen who has a way with dogs – Justin begins to appreciate his canine companion.

Justin’s growing trust in Max helps the four-legged veteran revert back to his heroic self. As the pair race to unravel the mystery, they find more excitement and danger than they bargained for. But they each might also find an unlikely new best friend in each other.

NO-SHOW POLICY

HollywoodChicago.com works hard to coordinate our giveaways for you with the movie studios. If you enter to win and are fortunate enough to be awarded, we expect you to attend. If you reply saying you can't attend – or don't show up at all without notifying us – that opportunity goes to waste and another lucky HollywoodChicago.com winner misses out on enjoying what you would have. We use various forms of tracking technologies to know whether or not you attended. When you win and don't attend, reputation points will be counted against you and you'll win less frequently. If you enter to win, please make sure you can attend if you do win. Thank you.
