Here is the synopsis for “The Martian”:

Based on Andy Weir’s brilliant novel, “The Martian” tells the story of wise-cracking astronaut Mark Watney, a crew member on the third manned mission to Mars. After an epic dust storm threatens the crew’s ascent, they are forced to abort the mission.

Separated from the rest of the team, Watney is unintentionally abandoned with the rest of the crew believing him to be dead. Now he’s stranded millions of miles from the nearest human being with no way to even signal Earth that he’s alive. Even if he could get the word out, his food would be gone years before a rescue mission could arrive.

Chances are, though, he won’t have time to starve to death. The damaged machinery, unforgiving environment or “human error” are much more likely to get him first. But Mark isn’t ready to give up yet. Drawing on his MacGyver-esque ingenuity, mechanical engineering skills and a relentless, dogged refusal to quit, he steadfastly confronts one seemingly insurmountable obstacle after the next.
