CHICAGO – The eclectic, the bizarre and the “underground” awaits film fans with the 23rd edition of the Chicago Underground Film Festival (CUFF), with Opening Night on June 1, 2016. The fest opens with the documentary “Tony Conrad: Completely in the Present,” directed by Tyler Hubby. The director will be in attendance, and more details and ticket purchasing information can be found by clicking here. [12]

The 23rd Annual CUFF runs from June 1st through June 5th, 2016, and has a full program of feature films, shorts, documentaries and off-the-grid entertainment not found anywhere else. Each night will feature an event, party or concert associated with the programming, and CUFF reigns as one of the most anticipated cross-events to kick off the summer. As Roger Ebert once wrote, “What you get for your money is not just admission to the films, but admission to a subculture.”

Opening Night for the 23rd annual Chicago Underground Film Festival is June 1st, 2016, with “Tony Conrad: Completely in the Present” – at the Logan Theatre, 2646 North Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago – with an after party to follow.
