Here is the synopsis for “Sing”:

Illumination has captivated audiences all over the world with the beloved hits “Despicable Me,” “Dr. Seuss’ The Lorax,” “Despicable Me 2” and “Minions,” which is now the second-highest-grossing animated movie in history. Following the release of this summer’s comedy blockbuster “The Secret Life of Pets,” Illumination presents “Sing” this holiday season.

With its highly relatable characters, heart and humor, the first collaboration between writer/director Garth Jennings (“Son of Rambow,” “The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy”) and Illumination founder and CEO Chris Meledandri marks the sixth fully animated feature from the studio.

The event film stars Academy Award winners Matthew McConaughey and Reese Witherspoon alongside Seth MacFarlane, Scarlett Johansson, John C. Reilly, Taron Egerton and Grammy Award-nominated Tori Kelly.

Set in a world like ours but entirely inhabited by animals, “Sing” stars Buster Moon (McConaughey), a dapper koala who presides over a once-grand theater that has fallen on hard times. Buster is an eternal – some might even say delusional – optimist who loves his theater above all and will do anything to preserve it. Now faced with the crumbling of his life’s ambition, he has one final chance to restore his fading jewel to its former glory by producing the world’s greatest singing competition.

Five lead contestants emerge: Mike (MacFarlane), a mouse who croons as smoothly as he cons; Meena (Kelly), a timid teenage elephant with an enormous case of stage fright; Rosita (Witherspoon), an overtaxed mother run ragged tending a litter of 25 piglets; Johnny (Egerton), a young gangster gorilla looking to break free of his family’s felonies; and Ash (Johansson), a punk-rock porcupine struggling to shed her arrogant boyfriend and go solo.

Each arrives under Buster’s marquee believing that this is their shot to change the course of their life. As Buster coaches each of his contestants closer and closer to the grand finale, he starts to learn that maybe the theater isn’t the only thing that is in need of saving.

Featuring more than 65 hit songs, “Sing” is produced by Meledandri and his longtime collaborator Janet Healy. Together, they have produced all of Illumination’s films since the studio’s inception.

This HollywoodChicago.com Hookup is simple! Just get interactive in our social media widget above. We will award 30 admit-two movie tickets based on social entry numbers and/or randomly via e-mail for our “Sing” Hookup. Good luck!

NO-SHOW POLICY

HollywoodChicago.com works hard to coordinate our giveaways for you with the movie studios. If you enter to win and are fortunate enough to be awarded, we expect you to attend. If you reply saying you can't attend – or don't show up at all without notifying us – that opportunity goes to waste and another lucky HollywoodChicago.com winner misses out on enjoying what you would have. We use various forms of tracking technologies to know whether or not you attended. When you win and don't attend, reputation points will be counted against you and you'll win less frequently. If you enter to win, please make sure you can attend if you do win. Thank you.

DISCLAIMER & TERMS OF ENTRY

Your entry in this Hookup warrants your understanding of and agreement with these terms. HollywoodChicago.com winners must arrive early as seats are consumed on a first-come, first-served basis. Showings may be overbooked to ensure a full house, so winners are not guaranteed entry and must arrive early. We recommend arriving at least 60 minutes before the showing's scheduled start time. Make-goods issued by the studio or its publicists are not guaranteed if you are declined entry for any reason. Per the studio's discretion, phones and other recording devices may be required to be bagged and tagged for anti-piracy reasons during the screening. HollywoodChicago.com LLC is a promotional partner with the studio and its partners and does not assume any liability for this giveaway. HollywoodChicago.com is not responsible for errors or omissions entered in user submissions. Comments are closed in this Hookup.
