CHICAGO – He has won seven Teen Choice Awards in a row for his portrayal of Ezra Fitz on the ABC Family series “Pretty Little Liars,” and he is now the author of a new book. Ian Harding has written “Odd Birds,” a collection of essays on bird watching and show business. In an event sponsored by Anderson’s Book Shop, he appeared at North Central College in Naperville, Ill.

Born in Germany to an American military family, Harding went onto study acting at Carnegie Mellon University. In 2010, he joined the cast of “Pretty Little Liars” – based on the popular youth adult book series – and remained with the show to its seventh and last season. He is currently been cast in the FOX TV pilot “Thin Ice.” His book “Odd Birds” is a series of observations based on his dedication to bird watching.

Photographer Joe Arce was at North Central College in Naperville on May 6th, 2017, for a book event sponsored by Anderson’s Book Shop – where Ian Harding greeted admirers and signed books – and took this Exclusive Portrait.

“Odd Birds,” by Ian Harding, is available at Anderson’s Book Shop and wherever books are sold.
