CHICAGO – It’s time for Round Three, 29 years after the second film. “Bill & Ted Face the Music” opened August 28th, 2020 in theaters and VOD platforms. Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com, reviewed the film during the Eddie Volkman Show (Star 96.7 FM) in Joliet, Illinois.

Rating: 3.5/5.0

“Bill & Ted Face the Music” presents the former teenage heroes (Alex Winter and Keanu Reeves) as middle aged men, failing to get their band Wyld Stallyns off the ground since their heroic number one song in the second film. The future is represented by Kelly (Kristen Schaal), the daughter of their old mentor Rufus, and recruits the clueless duo to again create a song that this time will save reality. Oh yeah, and Bill & Ted have two daughters (Samara Weaving and Brigette Lundy-Paine) helping them out.

“Bill & Ted Face the Music” is available through VOD and in theaters. See local listings for details. Featuring Keanu Reeves, Alex Winter, Kristen Schaal, Samara Weaving, Brigette Lundy-Paine and, William Sadler. Written by Chris Matheson and Ed Solomon. Directed by Dean Parisot. Rated “PG-13”
