Chicago's Asian Pop-Up Cinema – curated by veteran film programmer Sophia Wong Boccio – is collaborating with TECO and The Taiwanese American Chamber of Commerce (TACCGC), who is presenting the series. George Wu, the Chairman of TACCGC, expressed his appreciation. “Thanks to TECO in Chicago’s generous support, we are pleased to provide ... for the viewing pleasure of the American public ... a visual delight highlighting Taiwanese culture.”

Director General Eric Huang of TECO received his Master’s degree in Business Administration at the University of Chicago. He has had a diplomatic career of more than 20 years, including stints in Taiwan’s Ministry of Foreign affairs, and served two tours respectively in Singapore and Canada before coming to Chicago as head of Taiwan’s mission to the U.S. Midwest.

In a Podtalk with Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com, Eric Huang reflects on the cinema connection to Taiwan through the @Home film series, and a background of his office in Chicago.

The first film of the series @Home with Taiwan Cinema: Love & Hope will be “My Egg Boy” and will stream FREE through the Asian Pop-Up Cinema on September 11th through September 13th, 2020. Click here [22] to sign up.
