CHICAGO – Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com appears on “The Morning Mess” with Scott Thompson on WBGR-FM (Monroe, Wisconsin) on November 26th, 2020, reviewing the new animated sequel “The Croods: A New Age,” featuring the voices of Nicolas Cage, Emma Stone and Peter Dinklage.

Rating: 4.0/5.0

In this adventure, teen daughter Eep Crood (voice of Emma Stone) falls for teen nomad Guy (Ryan Reynolds), an orphan who is looking for the land of “tomorrow.” He joins the Crood family on their journey with disapproval from Dad Grug (Nicolas Cage). The family’s fortunes change when they meet the Phil and Hope Bettermen (Peter Dinklage and Leslie Mann), who have established a civilization complete with a lavish tree house. But all, as they say, is not what it seems. In theaters.

“The Croods: A New Age” is in theaters everywhere. Check local listings for theaters and show times. Featuring the voices of Emma Stone, Peter Dinklage, Leslie Mann and Cloris Leachman. Screenplay by Kevin Hageman, Dan Hageman, Bob Logan and Paul Fisher. Directed by Joel Crawford. Rated “PG”
