CHICAGO – Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com appears on “The Morning Mess” with Scott Thompson on WBGR-FM (Monroe, Wisconsin) in December of 2020, in a BONUS REVIEW of “The Bee Gees: How Can You Mend a Broken Heart” now on HBO MAX.

Rating: 5.0/5.0

The Brothers Gibb, AKA The Bee Gees, are a group of three sibling singer/songwriters – Barry, Maurice and Robin – who began their journey as recording artists in the 1960s Beatles era, and after a slight decline, came roaring back in the 1970s with a new sound and a new beat. The “Saturday Night Fever” soundtrack, on which the Bee Gees are prominently featured, has sold an astounding 20 million albums and sealed the band’s legacy. Their popularity also paved the way for youngest brother Andy, and their fame featured the usual highs and tragedies.

“The Bee Gees: How Can You Mend a Broken Heart” is available to stream on HBO MAX. Featuring The Bee Gees ... Barry, Maurice and Robin Gibb. Written by Mark Monroe. Directed by Frank Marshall. Rated “TV-MA”
