Among the U.S. premieres that Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com previewed includes Sam Uhlemann's family drama "The Edge of Darkness" ("... the film rightly points out that until the dirty laundry is thrown into the wash the stains just keep spreading"), Phil Sheerin's psychological thriller and directorial debut "The Winter Lake" ("... has shades of Alfred Hitchcock ..."), and the docu-drama "Violet Gibson - The Irish Woman Who Shot Mussolini" ("... a fascinating examination of how life can turn on a dime, based on how consciousness drives our beliefs."), directed by Barrie Dowdall and Kevin de la Isla O'Neill.
