CHICAGO – One of the classic show business turns is the Sister Act, and one of Chicago's up-and-coming are the Leslie Sister Duo. Kirsten and Regina Leslie have been performing both separately and together for all their lives, and will take their latest iteration to Le Piano in Chicago on November 22nd, 2021. For reservation info, click SISTER ACT [24].

Regina Leslie began studying violin at age five. By the time she was age eight, she had begun her performing career, where she played and sang at various events. This early performing experience was prime preparation for her eclectic career, which balances itself between appearing as violinist, actor and singer. She has appeared in many roles locally, including in "Cyrano de Bergerac" (Chicago Shakespeare Theatre), "A Christmas Carol" (Goodman Theatre) and "Wonderland" (Chicago Children's Theatre), as well as National and Regional Touring credits.
