CHICAGO – Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com appears on “The Morning Mess” with Scott Thompson on WBGR-FM (Monroe, Wisconsin) on December 30th, 2021, reviewing a favorite from the 2021 Sundance Film Festival, “Jockey” – currently in select theaters, see local listings.

Rating: 4.0/5.0

Writer/director Clint Bentley comes from the horse racing world that is the setting for “Jockey,” and imbues his main rider character Jackson (Clifton Collins Jr.) with the old gunslinger mentality. When the young upstart (Moisés Arias) comes to town to challenge Jackson’s legacy, the old horse galloper has to think about riding into the sunset.

“Jockey” is currently in select theaters, see local listings. Featuring Clifton Collins Jr., Moises Arias, Molly Parker, Logan Cormier, Vincent Francia and Marion St. Julien. Written and directed by Clint Bentley. Rated “R”
