CHICAGO – Patrick McDonald of HollywoodChicago.com audio film review on “Dual,” the latest film from Riley Stearns (THE ART OF SELF DEFENSE, and featuring Karen Gillan and Aaron Paul. In select theaters on Wednesday, April 15th, see local listings for theaters and show times.

Karen Gillan is Sarah, a young woman who gets diagnosed with a terminal disease giving her a year to live. Luckily she also lives in an age of cloning, and will be able to replace herself with an exact duplicate (she portrays both Sarahs) and spends time with the double to teach her how to be her. When Original Sarah finds out her disease was mis-diagnosed and she will live, the clone Sarah will not terminate her life. So per legal requirements, they must meet in one year to fight in a duel to the death.
