Here is the synopsis for “Self/less”:

“If only I had more time to live my life...” We all think it and we all feel it. But what if you were able to take that time – for a price? In the provocative psychological sci-fi/thriller “Self/less,” director Tarsem Singh explores the consequences of taking a life to live forever.

Billionaire industrialist Damian Hale (Academy Award winner Ben Kingsley) has long been a master of his universe. He excels at power plays from his New York City base of operations. Estranged from his activist daughter Claire (Michelle Dockery of “Downton Abbey”), Damian’s only real connection is with his lifelong friend and right-hand man Martin O’Neil (Victor Garber). But a dire cancer diagnosis makes Damian determined to access a radical medical procedure called “shedding” that will turn back the clock for him.

The process is offered to Damian by Albright (Matthew Goode of “The Good Wife”): the brilliant head of a secret organization that caters to the wealthy. Damian seizes the opportunity and his death is staged. The world now thinks he is gone, but he is in fact “shedding”: his consciousness is being transferred into the body of a healthy man (Ryan Reynolds) decades younger than he. The operation is deemed a success.

Adapting to his new physical form and beginning a second life in New Orleans, Damian is befriended by a local man, Anton (Derek Luke). Both preserving his newfound health and indulging himself, Damian becomes comfortable in his new identity as “Edward”. But the disturbing images flooding his consciousness are not easily explained away by Albright’s contention that “immortality has some side effects”.

When he finds himself drawn to single mother Madeline (Natalie Martinez), Damian starts to uncover the mystery of Edward's origin and those who will kill to protect the organization. Summoning two lifetimes' worth of strength and resourcefulness, Damian fights for his life and for the lives that he has impacted.

NO-SHOW POLICY

HollywoodChicago.com works hard to coordinate our giveaways for you with the movie studios. If you enter to win and are fortunate enough to be awarded, we expect you to attend. If you reply saying you can't attend – or don't show up at all without notifying us – that opportunity goes to waste and another lucky HollywoodChicago.com winner misses out on enjoying what you would have. We use various forms of tracking technologies to know whether or not you attended. When you win and don't attend, reputation points will be counted against you and you'll win less frequently. If you enter to win, please make sure you can attend if you do win. Thank you.
